Copenhagen, April 16, N. S.

COUNT Freytag, the Imperial Miniſter, took his Leave in a private Audience of his Daniſh Majeſty on the 11th Inſtant. Two Ships are fitting out for Greenland, on which Coaſt there is a ſmall Colony of Danes; and laſt Year a Ship was ſent on Purpoſe to make further Diſcoveries in thoſe Parts, where ſhe has remained all Winter, and is now expected back again upon the opening of the Seas.

Paris, April 20, N. S. The French and Swiſs Guards that are to do Duty at Compiegne began their March thither to Day; theſe two Regiments were reviewed Yeſterday in the Plain des Sablons by his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty. Six Notaries are added by the Comptroller-General to thoſe that were named formerly for the receiving and inſpecting the Subſcriptions for the Lottery of the Town-Houſe. The Death of the Marqueſs de Canillac has given Occaſion to a regular Promotion of the Officers in the Troop of the Black Muſquetaires according to their ſeveral Degrees. The Duke de Chaulnes has reſigned his Penſion of 8000 Livres per Annum, upon his having the Government of Amiens. M. de Malvrieux ſucceeds the late M. Joncourt as Lieutenant-General of the Artillery at Strasbourg; and M. de Janery is made Commiſſary-Provincial, in the Place of M. Malvrieux. The Marqueſs de Gandelu has obtained the Reverſion of a Penſion of 8000 Livres, Part of the 20000 which his Father de Duke de Tremes enjoys at preſent. The ſaid Marqueſs was married Yeſterday at Beaumont to Mademoiſelle de Tingry. It is reported that the Biſhop of Amiens is dead in his Dioceſe. The Marqueſs de la Jarre, Captain of the Queen Dowager of Spain's Guards at Paris, has had an Apoplectick Fit, of which he is dangerouſly ill. The Princeſs de Carignan is indiſpoſed. The Count de la Fayette has obtained a Troop in King Staniſlaus's Regiment of Horſe.

Hague, April 22, N. S. The States having paſſed a Reſolution and Anſwer to a Memorial lately preſented to them by M. Grys the Daniſh Reſident, relating to certain Differences between the Crown of Denmark and this Republick, have ſent it to their Miniſters in England and France to be communicated to thoſe Courts. The Differences in Eaſt-Friſeland are not like to end ſo ſoon as was thought; the Prince, and the Commiſſioners for executing the Imperial Decree, not being ſatisfied with the Submiſſion of the Town of Embden, in the Form that Submiſſion was made. The Lord Glenorchy has fixed the 24th Inſtant for his Departure from hence for Helvoetſluys, there to imbark for England. The Great Penſionary is ſo ill of the Gout, that he keeps his Bed. It is adviſed from Vienna, that Count Schonborn, Vice-Chancellour of the Empire, was gone to Bamberg, thence to proceed to Wurtzbourg, to ſupport his Pretenſions at the enſuing Election of a Biſhop. The Duke of Lorrain was preparing to ſet out from the Imperial Court for Luneville.
